

Home Hub

ALL HEART

Blending past and present with a playful charm, Cambridge-based homeware brand Mineheart has just announced its biggest-ever product launch. From Old Master cushions graffitied with neon spray paint to William Morris-style wallpaper peppered with fat flying pigs, it's a down-the-rabbit-hole delight.

See and shop the whole collection at mineheart.com

Crush lamp, £210

Ink Flow 1 tufted rug, £732; Graffiti 4 tufted rug, £1,070; Morris Dream wallpaper, £148 per 10m roll

SHOW TIME

This is great news: Cambridge Home + Garden Show, a hit when it debuted two years ago, returns to the city this month.

Running at The Guildhall throughout the weekend of March 30 and 31, it's a celebration of the best in home and garden design, encompassing a packed exhibition hall and a programme of expert-led talks and workshops.

"The positive response from the first show was amazing," says organiser Jennifer Chong. "I'm still hearing about connections made and projects becoming a reality as a result of the event, and that makes me so happy. I'm very excited to be able to bring it back for a second event – and to expand it to two days."

Supported by Cambridge Independent, Velvet's sister paper, and Independent Cambridge, which flies the flag for indie enterprise across the area, the show is headline-sponsored by Cambridge Classics, the door and window brand, and backed by The Crane Event and Karen Kinks Design. Exhibitors include David Hall Kitchen & Furniture Makers, The Art Hound Gallery, Art of Flooring, Go Glass and AZ Interiors – for a full list, see camhomeshow.com.

An added bonus? Novi, the city-central coffee shop and cocktail bar, is also hosting a pop-up café.

Entry is free. Register for tickets at camhomeshow19.eventbrite.co.uk

Submerged wall art, £194; Madame Blush cushion, £72